Strich & Faden, Heimat, Volkskunst und Travestie

Kathrin Schädlich

Personal

Kathrin Schaedlich was born in 1964 in Bremen, Germany.

From 1988 to 1994 she studied painting at the Academy of Fine Arts in Bremen, completing her studies in Professor Peter Schaefer's master class. She was distinguished for best degree work.

The artist now lives in Germany and Portugal.

Kathrin Schaedlich paints, draws and creates collages and linocuts, playing with various painting techniques. In her compositions she complements ornaments, figures and objects with citations of art history, which creates colourful and often surrealistic paintings.

Her motives are inspired by a wide variety of sources. Items from different worlds come together and tell a story which is not clear and defined. Figures of old masters, such as Giotto or Breughel, appear as bit parts or leading actors for weird events, creating a puzzling atmosphere. This inspires the beholder's imagination and leaves it to him to invent and complete the narration.

Colour also contributes to the specific impression of her work. The use of colour is intuitive and independent of the object or the original artwork.

Her earlier and current work is characterized by the enchanting and the magical, expressed in various forms, but always with an ironic smile, which gives her work a poetic, bizarre charisma.
